Official AV provider of the USA Partnership Pavilion

Smart AV specializes in providing audio visual and IT services in exhibitions, conferences, and events worldwide. Known for their service and reputation, Kallman Worldwide recommends Smart AV for all your audio and IT needs.

ADIPEC USA Partnership Catalogue \(PDF\)

Please be sure to complete the following when ordering AV equipment:

1. Complete the order form on the Smart AV ADIPEC USA Partnership Pavilion Catalogue and submit to Sophie Linnett (SophieL@smart-av.com) by NOVEMBER 4. Please copy Kimberly Arencibia (KimberlyA@kallman.com) on your order to ensure a smooth installation while onsite.
2. Purchase an outlet for your stand via the US3-E Electrical form. Be sure to include the outlet location near where you are planning to display the AV equipment.
3. Purchase a stand for your monitor. Table top, floor stands and wall mount brackets can be purchased through Smart AV. The interlocking booth system does not require additional purchase of a reinforced wall panel. Please also include a layout of where you want the monitor to be installed.

Official Freight Forwarders of the USA Partnership Pavilion

We are pleased to inform you that we have appointed the TWI Group as our official freight forwarding company for all of your logistics needs at ADIPEC 2019.

The TWI Group specializes in trade show logistics and will ship your exhibit materials to the show and safely back home again. Since the UAE has very specific customs and documentation requirements for trade shows, we strongly recommend using TWI for your logistics needs.

If you are interested in using TWI to ship your products and/or marketing materials, please forward all inquiries to the below contact:
